School Notes

(Southern School Journal)

Seven schools in Bell county are vacant on account of a shortage of teachers. They pay anywhere from $25 to $45 per month.

0-0

A trustee once argued with one of his teachers that the $40.00 per month which she demanded was out of all reason; that the $35.00 which she then received was really more than her work merited. She made inquiry and found that he based his estimate of the worth of her work upon the muscular effort required, taking no thought of the preparation nor the brain work necessary for the proper discharge of her duties. This trustee did not mean to be unjust. He reasoned that a thing is worth no more than you pay for it. He had no difficulty in securing any number of able bodied men to do the work of his farm for $16.00 per month, they working twenty-six days per month, while the teacher worked only twenty. The farm hands began at sunrise, and quit only at sunset; whereas the teacher worked only from eight until four, with a whole hour at noon. The teacher was something of a politician, so she grew interested in the work of the trustee's immense farm, and drew him out on his methods of management, and incidentally regarding the efficiency and trustworthiness of the help which he hired for $16.00 per month. By accident, she trapped the trustee into stating that he would "give most anything" if he could get a man with initiative and with real interest in the business—one who would not demand every legal holiday if the work were pressing, and who would have an eye single to the best interest of his employer. The teacher then summed up the result of the conversation very much as follows: "You say your help are inefficient; that you must be present in order to have anything accomplished properly; that they are ignorant; that they know little or nothing of the work they are expected to do; that they have no desire to increase their skill or knowledge; that their only thought is to give the least possible service for the amount of wage promised; that, in short, one of the men employed at $16.00 per month does less than half the amount of work which might reasonably be expected of one man. Now, since I have had charge of your school, you have never entered the school room—proving thereby that you understand that I am not only capable of doing my work unassisted, but that I have the integrity and the interest in my work to do so without oversight; for the preparation for my work, I spent many years of study, and my father paid out several hundred dollars of hard earned money. Is my training worth nothing in the market of the world? Is my trustworthiness no asset in business? If not, then get your hired man to teach your children." The trustee was taken off his feet by this reasoning, and hastened to say, "O, but my hired man does not know how to teach!" To which the teacher replied, "Then pay me $16.00 for teaching, and $24.00 for knowing how and I will be content." It is not to be supposed she gained her point. Trustees are human; and convinced against their will, will hold the same opinion still, according to an old and true saying.

The Perry county teachers, at the close of their institute, adopted resolutions favoring the abolishing of the trustee system and the adoption of some sort of county unit plan; the passage by the legislature of compulsory education law requiring at least three months' attendance, the passage of an anti-cigarette law, and another requiring public school teachers to have at least six months' normal training before beginning the work of the second term.

An Old Insurance Man Strikes Easy Street

There used to be in old Webster county a poor insurance man by the name of T. K. Wilson. If we mistake not Mr. Wilson lived at Sebree, Ky., and wiped up dust and mud from Webster's roads for several years. He wrote fire insurance and looked after the interests of the Continental Insurance Company in their farm department and with all made a living. His business increased not to his liking. It increased to such an extent that he finally had a good opportunity to dispose of his agency which he did to advantage. In the final wind up and clean up Mr. Wilson flanked very nearly $5,000.00 and in March 1905 (about a year and a half ago) he dusted the dirt from his shoes and started for Tampa, Florida. Mr. Wilson stayed there about a week and saw that for him there was nothing doing.

He then went to St. Petersburg, Florida. At that time the place had 3,000 people. Mr. Wilson looked about. There was only one bank there and it was called the First National. He thereupon organized The National Bank with $25,000 capital, selling each big man or merchant $1,000 of the stock. He kept $5,000 stock. That bank now has on deposit $210,000.00.

The Assistant Cashier gets $90.00 per month and Mr. Wilson certainly gets a better salary than that.

In six months this bank declared a ten per cent dividend.

Mr. Wilson then went into a real estate deal. He bought thirty acres of inside property for $14,000 and paid only $3,000 down. In six weeks he sold ten acres of this tract at $15,000.00. The balance of the tract was cut up into lots and $8,000 worth of them were sold. He has ten or twelve acres of very desirable residence lots left.

The ten acre plot of ground was bought by New York capitalists and they built thereon the Manhattan Hotel.

Last winter Dr. J. O. Dixon and Mr. W. B. Yandell bought thirteen lots between this Manhattan Hotel and the main part of town for $4,200. They have sold off $3,200 worth and will make money on the transaction.

Republican Campaign Text-Book

A departure has been made in the Republican Campaign Text-Book just issued, in that its contents are wholly devoted to live issues, and these are treated in the briefest possible way, yet comprehensively enough to include all necessary facts and figures.

First, there is a general statement of the issues of 1906, followed by a brief review of Republican legislation in general and the work of the Fifty-ninth Congress in particular. The Railroad Rate Law, Pure Food Law, Free Alcohol Law, Employers' Liability Law and the Meat Inspection portion of the Agricultural Appropriation Law are given in full, as is Chairman Tawney's clear explanation of the appropriations.

The Labor question is next fully presented, followed by Representative Watson's exposition of Anti-Trust proceedings. About one hundred pages are given to the Tariff, Agriculture and Manufactures, and the tables showing the various phases of industrial activity. Among other subjects treated under the tariff are:

Protection and Free Trade, Customs Revenue, Foreign Commerce, Home Market and Internal Trade, Wages and Prices, Export Discounts, Reciprocity, Free Hides, Revision, etc., etc.

Some half hundred tables give official and authoritative figures down to the latest possible date. The work of the president and administration is then briefly presented, the condition and status of the Philippines, the Panama Canal, the Navy, Postal Service, Irrigation, etc., etc.

The President's letter to Representative Watson concludes the work, which has a copious index of over a dozen pages.

Scattered throughout the book are quotations from President Roosevelt and other Republican leaders. Among these is the extract from Senator Hanna's speech where he used the "stand pat" expression, it being the only instance in the Text-Book where the words "stand pat" are used. A page is given to Mr. Bryan and his views, with the comments of the New York World. A so-called "Prosperity Postscript" is added, giving treasury conditions, trade reports, etc., down to August 1.

For the first time in a political campaign, the Text-Book will have a general circulation, as together with other literature, it will be sent on receipt of one dollar by John C. Eversman, Assistant Treasurer, 1133 Broadway, New York.

The new Pure Food and Drug Law will mark it on the label of every Cough Cure containing Opium, Chloroform or any other stupefying or poisonous drug. But it passes Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure as made for 20 years; entirely free. Dr. Shoop's all along has bitterly opposed opiates or narcotics. Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure is absolutely safe even for the youngest babe—and it cures, it does not simply suppress. Get a safe and reliable Cough Cure, by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's. Let the law be your protection. We cheerfully recommend and sell it, Haynes & Taylor.

SUBSCRIPTION ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR.

Entered as second-class matter July 15, 1904, at the postoffice at Marion, Ky., under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

NOTICE! In writing to have your address changed always give the postoffice to which your paper is going as well as the postoffice to which you wish it sent.

While our columns are always open for the discussion of any relevant subject, we do not necessarily endorse the opinions of contributors. Anonymous letters will not be noticed; therefore correspondents will please give their names—not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

FRIDAY, NOV. 9, 1906.

If you want to try for something good for Marion, come to the court house Friday night.

Our tobacco men are getting busy. Quite a lot of tobacco has been bought. Most of the buyers think it is too high. All the sellers think it is too low.

How would Marion like to have a glass factory that would pay out several thousand dollars here in Marion every month? We have one kind of sand that cannot be beat. How about the other kind?

Last week there was installed in The CRITTENDEN RECORD office the last piece of machinery necessary to make this office second to none. The machine is an Eclipse Folding Machine, and is made by a company of that name located at Sidney, Ohio. The number of the Machine is 2080. It folds and cuts an eight page paper at the speed of 2,500 papers per hour.

We call your attention to the announcement appearing in this issue of Mr. T. H. Cochran, the former president of the Commercial Club. If a Commercial Club is the necessary and proper means to be used to upbuild Marion we think all should join and lend a hand. The old club probably made mistakes. If that is true, come to the front and help keep a revived organization off of the shoal rocks. Marion needs some new enterprise to give employment. Why not all put their shoulders to the wheel and let's push?

The Kentucky Synod

Kentucky Synod of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., met last week in Hopkinsville. It was a large and enthusiastic gathering. There were more than thirty ministers present and thirty to forty congregations were represented. Quite a number of visitors were present and added much to the enjoyment of the meeting. Dr. John Dixon, New York, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions; Dr. B. P. Fullerton, St. Louis, Secretary of the Southwest; Dr. Calhoun, Pittsburg; Dr. Cochran, Philadelphia; Dr. Beveridge, Lee, Minneapolis; Dr. Hunter Corbett, Missionary to Japan; Dr. Warren, Louisville; Dr. D. McDonald, Danville, and J. M. Fitterson, St. Louis, Secretary of the Board of Missions, were some of the visitors at the Synod.

It was a remarkably harmonious meeting, not a dissenting vote being cast on any proposition. The missionary conference, held the day preceding, was a unique feature of the Synod, deeply spiritual and very encouraging to all revival workers.

Mr. Fred Cowper Prognosticates

The clock in the school house tower slowly tolled the hour of four. Albert Cannan town police cried out with a loud voice.

Polls closed!!!
Mr. Fred Cowper an aspirant for Frankfort honors stood on the sidewalk in a state of high elation with enthusiasm excluding from every pore an gleefully exclaimed "Its all over. Say do you want to know what my majority now is?" Several bystanders said, "yes, what is your majority, and how bad are the others skinned?" Mr. Cowper assumed a leaning back attitude. He fished out an old envelope and a pencil then leaned back some more. His gaze was riveted on the wall of the Postoffice building. Quite a crowd gathered about him and directed by his gaze looked up the brick wall but saw nothing. The suggestion was made that he was reading the "hand writing on the wall." At the expiration of a sufficient length of time usually taken by those who prognosticate, Mr. Cowper wrote the magic figures on the back of his envelope and they are there today if he has not torn the paper up.
The magic figures he wrote were 130.

Last Warning

To the tax payers who have not yet paid their tax take notice that on the 15th day of Nov., the present month, warrants will be issued for all unpaid tax in compliance with the law in such case made and provided and at the cost of said delinquent.
J. F. FLANARY, S. C. C.

BITS OF BYPLAY.

These are strenuous political times. The orator stalks abroad and visits the hustings with great regularity. Some go down in defeat and others rise in glory. A number of years ago a great campaign was on and Mr. Bryan preached the doctrine of 16 to 1. Nearly all the citizens of Marion studied the money question and arguments waxed warm. The whole county and country was aflame. If an enthusiast ever had a suspicion of oratory lurking in his veins it blossomed into a sort of oratorical measles in this good year of 1896. The times and the enthusiasm were infectious and it caught all alike. A certain Crittenden county orator of political aspirations sat in the midst of a Republican meeting in the court house some time during this year. The house was full of Republicans. There was not a Democrat present. All the local oratorical lights had paraded the judge's stand—glowed brightly—gradually grew dim—then sat down. There was a stillness. Some one in the audience piped the name of the Crittenden county orator of political aspirations. One pipe was enough. He walked back and forth and trod the dust out of the judicial carpet. He waved his arms and charged the air and then surcharged it with pure oratory and then he run out of soap. With a helpless look he glanced about for something that would suggest a thought. His eyes finally rested on a newcomer. Mr. Bob Donaldson attracted by the sounds had come to the court house door and stood looking in. The political aspiration orator fixed his eyes on Bob steadily and prepared himself for an oratorical outburst of great proportions. Like a red rag shaken in front of a male cow Bob Donaldson's democratic profile surmounted by a white hat was the limit. With great dramatic force and effect the orator said, "I see a Democrat at the door!!!! He has a white hat on!!!! God pity his soul."

"When tired day has sunk into the arms of restful night,
Heavens elon vault
Studded with stars unutterably bright
Seems like a canopy which love has spread
To curtain her sleeping world."
Bob Grady grew tired of night and "Sunk into the arms of restful day." He is gone. An honest man and good. He leaves behind an honored name by those who know him best. He stood in life for all that makes this life worth while and now in death that honored name lives on. Bob Grady was true. True to a friend. True to his word. True in all the relations of life. He has entered into that within the vale where we all will follow one by one. Very rare indeed is the record of two or more simultaneous deaths in a community of this size. We pass regularly and in order. Bob Grady is on the other side. He has joined the great majority. Some of the mysteries of this life are no longer mysteries to him. May peace be with his ashes, and reverence with his name. He will be greatly missed by others than his immediate family.

Judge J. P. P. and Marion F. Pogue have succeeded in getting themselves on a roll of honor. The roll is rolled and unrolled by the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, of Louisville, Ky. Some of our far seeing citizens own stock in this company. This roll of honor is a sign that the honor of being on the roll belongs to those who write the most life insurance. The premiums of the before mentioned amounted to over $800 last month.

Mr. Zed Bennett has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Ault Manufacturing Company. This is a very large wholesale concern. He announced very solemnly the other day that he would make nothing but San Francisco, Chicago and New York then go to London. However he would not go to San Francisco until it was entirely rebuilt.

Tautology is a repetition of the same meaning in different words. A certain attorney at the Marion bar came near being guilty in asserting that the case "reverts back" to the lower court. This is about in line with a phone conversation a few days ago in which a lady told her neighbor that she had been "misinformed wrong."

Who has not had day dreams nor built air castles? If any have not, let him stand up. The air castle generally has this foundation, "If I had so much money I would do so and so." Rev. J. W. Bigham had an air castle and the foundation was the same. "If I had so much money I would hire Bob Franks to go with me all the time."

It is quite refreshing to run across something new and original in these days of the deadly paralleled and the clipping clipped without credit. Listen at this new one:
"Let me go at a rolling rate
To Marion postoffice in Kentucky state,
And there content let me be Until Mary Coffield calls for me."

AMONG OUR CHURCHES

Rev. J. H. Butler preached at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening. The text in the morning was Luke 6:38, "Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down and shaken together, and running over, shall men give unto your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." The subject was "Giving." The following thoughts were discussed: Duty of christian giving, objects to which we give, manner of giving and the encouragements of giving. This sermon was preached by request.

In the evening the text was Mark 10:21, "Then Jesus beholding him, loved him." The subject was "Christ's love for young men." He talked of the young ruler and Jesus.

Next Sunday evening the subject will be "Christ's call to young men." All the young men of the town are especially invited.

Rev. J. F. Price preached last Sunday morning at the C. P. church on the subject of Missions. He showed from the Bible that salvation was intended for the whole world and that the great commission bade us go to all. He showed why the world is not saved—its natural sinfulness, the church's indifference and carelessness. He then showed the wonderful opportunity the church has at the present time. The theme for the evening service was "The Supremacy of Love." He contrasted love with faith and hope. He showed the various stages of love, and the tests of love.

Rev. Virgil Elgin preached at the Methodist church Sunday morning and evening. In the morning he used as a text Luke 2:52, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man." His subject was "The child Christ." In the evening the text was Matthew 25:23, "The subject was "Reasonableness and Leniency of God's Demands."

A CRITTENDEN COUNTY BOY
Doing Well—Strikes for a Position as Mail Clerk
Mr. William H. Ordway, of Crayneville, Ky., ought to feel proud of his son George.
About three months ago he went to Amarillo, Texas, on account of his health. He worked on a ranch there for quite a while at $20 per month and is now working for the rail road and receiving $60 per month.
He thinks it will not be long until he gets a position in the Railway Mail Service.
This is a Crittenden county boy. He did not lay around Crayneville smoking cigarettes and waiting for something to turn up. He went out west and turned up something to the tune of sixty plunks per each and every month. Young man out of employment go and do likewise.
A. Fenton Griffith Visits Marion
For several days A. Fenton Griffith and his wife have been visiting in Marion.
To the uninformed it would appear that Mr. Griffith was shaking hands with his friends and viewing with complacency the scenes of his childhood. While, of course, he has been so engaged, yet this is not all his mission here.
Many years ago Robert C. Haynes, a newspaper reporter, editor, author, poet and general literator, wrote a book of poems entitled "Fent's Christmas." In this book we were informed that in order to have any Christmas Fent must have money.
Christmas is rapidly approaching again and Fent thought he would come to Marion and collect up enough to bridge over Christmas.
When asked how he had succeeded he said "not a dollar. Not a dollar!! I have over $3000, scattered over this county and do you know I have not collected one dollar. No not even fifty cents."
Fent mopped his brow and blew out a long breath.
Miss Kittie Loveless Eaton
The subject of this sketch was born May 1882 near Salem and died Oct. 31, 1906 at the home of her parents in Salem.
Kittie professed faith in Christ several years ago and adorned that profession with a Godly walk and christian conversation.
Her life was one of beauty and fragrance to those who came within her touch and abides in memory to point to the "Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world."
Her works do follow her, and many shall rise up and call her blessed.
Her death was a victory, she was ready and willing to go. She leaves two little children, a devoted husband, father and mother and a host of friends mourn their loss.
We weep not as those as those who have no hope, knowing that our loss is her eternal gain, and that where she is there we may be also if we trust in Christ the Savior of every one that believes.
She was buried in Union cemetery beside her babe, buried one week before. Funeral services conducted by the writer. "For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again even so then also they that are fallen asleep in Jesus, will God bring with him. Wherefore comfort one another with these words."

THE TEACHERS INSTITUTE...

THURSDAY MORNING

After the usual devotional exercises which were conducted this morning by Rev. Andres, and after the roll call Prof. V. G. Kee made a motion to set aside forty minutes of the institutes time to be used by Prof. C. C. Cherry, of the State Normal School in an address to the teachers.

Prof. Cherry after thanking the institute for the courtesy just shown made an eloquent and very interesting talk on the need of better teachers and schools in Kentucky. He pointed out that inasmuch as at present the teachers of Crittenden represented about 5,000 school children, the training of those teachers was a very important factor in what Crittenden county and Kentucky would be forty years from now. He gave statements of facts proving that Kentucky stands thirty-seventh in the number of her educated population, saying that the changing of this condition depended on the teacher. He voiced the sentiment of the teachers present when he said that the state could her teachers generously and that nothing more should be expected from her. He pleaded for a local tax which would make it possible for a good teacher to receive just compensation.

After his address, Rev. Price made a few comments on the statements just made, saying that it was good for our teachers to be with and feel the spirit of a man who had accomplished so much.

During the short recess the mornings regular work was resumed.

Miss Mattie Perry talked of "Geography", giving some interesting ideas with teaching of the subject. Some of her plans are, imaginary trips, pictures of places and people, and the use of objects. She said that geography, correctly taught tended more to broaden the mind of the child than any study.

Both the Superintendent and Instructor made a talk commenting on the morning's work.

A motion was made and seconded that Prof. Cherry be invited to speak before the institute again during the afternoon and that the citizens of the town be invited to come and hear him. Motion carried, and institute adjourned until regular time for meeting in the evening.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

After the usual exercises Miss Mary Towery commenced the evening's work with a talk on making things practical beginning with the things we see about us. Mr. W. O. Wicker spoke of the importance of commercial geography. His main object in teaching, was, he said, to see what we get from and return to each country with whom we trade. The methods of geographical study and the value of map drawing was discussed by Mr. W. J. McChesney. The economics of geographical study was discussed from every standpoint by Burl Woodson.

The subject of geography was then taken up and discussed by the body as a whole.

Prof. Cherry then accepted the invitation of the Institute to speak before the body on the subject of "The Public Schools and how we can make it better. He proved in many ways that it pays a community to build good school houses and employ good teachers and pay them well. He proved, also, that the productive value of any people depends entirely upon their education. No nation he said has or can make itself poor by spending money for educating its people. He said that the patrons of our schools would never take an interest in our schools until they did something of material value for them. He made a plea for teachers who were interested in and loved their work, and who intended to devote their lives to it as a profession.

After Prof. Cherry's address, a short but pointed talk on higher salary for teachers was given by Rev. Price.

Recess.

The topic of school government was taken up and discussed by Mr. P. M. Ward. He pointedly showed that the disciplinaries is needed in every school room, and that on the child's discipline depended his future character, to a great extent.

School punishment was defined as an infliction of pain on the body or mind by the teacher as a correction of a fault of the pupils by Mr. E. J. Travis. He regarded all cruel punishment as a relic of savagery. Never use, said he, the stick or the cane as a punishment but always try to fit the punishment to the child and its deed.

Adjournment until Friday morning at nine o'clock.

FRIDAY MORNING

After a song by institute the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. Elgin. Roll called by secretary.

Rev. Price opened the morning work with a short talk on the "Sensibilities". He described the physical sensibilities as including sensations, appetites and instincts and the physical emotions, affections and desires. The speaker told of the value of kindergarten and showed that some training of emotions or the instinct of power must be made. He said that the fairy tales were now only realized emotions and the toys of a nation are prophecy of that nation's future.

Miss Edna Roberts believes in teaching history to all classes, especially should it be connected with geography civics. Connection should be made in spelling and composition, and a map should always be used as well as many different books of history.

Mr. H. E. Minner and Miss Margaret Rankin discussed "History and its related studies," considering those studies to be geography and civil government.

Broadening of the mind, strengthening of the intellect and will power, and a love for home and country Mr. A. A. Fritts believes to be the chief ends to be attained in the study of history. History, he said, takes us from what we are to what we can be or may be. Rev. Price pointed out that inasmuch as history is a life study a common school teacher can hardly do more than lay the foundation for the study and instill the child with a love for it.

Miss Gill urged the cultivation of the imagination, saying that without it no teacher could do very much in any study. Miss Todd confirmed Miss Gill's idea.

Rev. Price asked, "What features would you bring out in primary history?" The institute seemed to think that no formal teaching in these grades was best, but that oral study of adventures and explorations, inventions and biography should be made, the chief point being that the child should express his knowledge.

A discussion by teachers brought out the value of relics and maps, and pictures. Require correct language and use many interesting drills and reviews. Don't allow children to memorize all lessons, ask them questions which require thought and comprehensive knowledge of lesson to answer.

A discussion was also held on the value of arithmetic and history compared.

The instructor talked for a few minutes on "Phonetics and Phonics," and their place in teaching. He said a teacher could not be successful unless she taught the sounds. He held a drill in sounds for an illustration.

Recess.

Dr. Vernon Fox illustrated his talk on "Physiology" with sketches which might be used in the class room during the study of the body, saying also that one of the children would be an interesting model to study and that the meat shops could furnish many real specimens.

Mr. H. W. Powell and Mr. L. McDowell discussed the digestion and assimilation of food, and both emphasized the importance of impressing the class with the fact that good mastication is an essential for health.

As a few minutes yet remained of the morning session and all work prepared for that time was finished, a motion was made and seconded and carried that a few of the afternoon subjects be discussed.

Misses Willie Carlross and Elva Roberts gave a few directions on how and what to do in cases of accident and poisons. Mr. L. F. Moore said that exercise, rest, proper ventilation, proper foods, baths and massage would cure any ordinary case of nervousness, and

Heart Weakness

The action of the heart depends upon the heart nerves and muscles. When from any cause they become weak or exhausted, and fail to furnish sufficient power, the heart flutters, palpitates, skips beats; and in its effort to keep up its work, causes pain and distress, such as smothering spells, short breath, fainting, pain around heart, arm and shoulders. The circulation is impeded, and the entire system suffers from lack of nourishment.

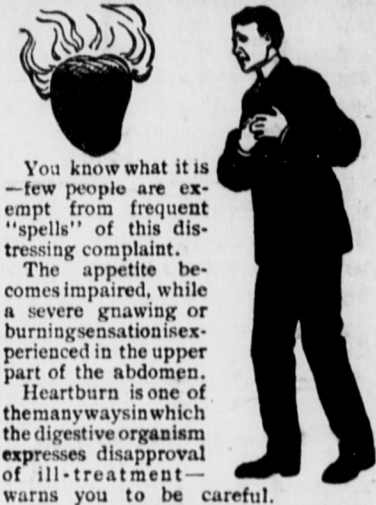

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure makes a heart strong and vigorous by strengthening these nerves and muscles.

"I had palpitation and pain around my heart, and the doctors said it was incurable. I don't believe it now, for after taking six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, three bottles of the Nerve and Liver Pills, I am entirely cured, and feel better than I have for five years, and it is all due to these remedies. I want you to know that your medicines cured me. It relieved me from the first dose, and I kept right on till the pain in my chest was gone, and I kept on feeling better each day after I quit taking it." JOHN H. SHUPMAN, Belling, Mich.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Rev. Price closed the work with a plea for the "Doctrine of Laughter."

FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

After the opening exercises Prof. Kee made a talk on educational magazines. Mr. Franks, the county Sunday school superintendent, was present and asked the help of the teachers in their present work.

The instructor gave a talk on "Interest and Attention." He said that since involuntary attention was the only kind children ever gave, teachers should resort to all kinds of devices to hold it. He said that protracted attention to one subject was hard on the mind and that for the benefit of child frequent changing should be made of the devices or methods employed.

He then gave a talk on "Pronunciation," and asked the teachers to arrange themselves in two equal divisions. When they had done this he conducted a pronunciation match on the lines of the old fashioned spelling match. The drill was excellent in convincing the teachers of the need of more thorough practice in the pronunciation of even the very commonest words.

After recess the committee on resolutions reported. Mr. C. E. Thomas, chairman of committee, read the following resolutions which were adopted:

We, the committee on resolutions, do hereby resolve:

1. That the secretary shall not be required to pay her institute fee.
2. That we, the teachers of Crittenden county, desire to cooperate with the County Superintendent with the law concerning the attendance during each annual institute.
3. That we express our appreciation for the use of this magnificent school building.
4. That we tender our sincere thanks to Rev. Price for his faithful and earnest appeal to the teachers of Crittenden county for their best efforts to elevate the child's mind that they may reach the standard of true manhood and womanhood.

Signed VERNON R. FOX,
CHARLES E. THOMAS.

Mr. Paris thanked the teachers present for their help to him in his work, and spoke of the need of Christianity in teaching. Rev. Price also spoke of the teachers as a moral force.

Rev. Andres and Rev. Elgin gave short talks on the same subject, saying that every life should have an ideal and that all teachers should keep ever before them the ideal of the perfect teacher, Christ. The education at the expense of the moral man is not desirable. Education of the right sort is always needed. Practice morality and be not only the teacher of the community, but the elevating force of the nation.

The instructor then gave a short talk on the present educational outlook and thanked the teachers for their hearty co-operation with his work during the week. After the institute sang a song the house stood adjourned with a benediction by Rev. Elgin.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used only on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure and get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Haynes & Taylor, druggist. ## Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidney Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine is scanty, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggist recommended and sold.

HOSPITAL PHYSICIANS SAID: "IT WOULD DELIGHT US TO FIND SOMETHING TO CURE THIS DEAR OLD SUFFERER."

Mrs. E. W. ROSE, St. Louis, Mo. RICHMOND, IND., NOV. 26, 1906.

DEAR SIR: The charity patient in whom I am so much interested was seventy-five years old at the time that she began the use of "Zemo," and her weight was 130 lbs. Her health has been poor for some time past, suffering mainly from renal trouble, according to the diagnosis of the doctors in attendance. She has been a hard worker all her life, having made the living for her family keeping boarders. Somewhat over a year until her entire body was affected, the legs being a mass of sores constantly separating. The itching and burning sensation was so dreadful that it was impossible for her to sleep at night. The doctors at times that it was impossible for her to sleep at night, and when I asked permission to use "Zemo" promptly said, "It would delight us to find something to cure this dear old sufferer." "Zemo" was first used on the upper part of the body and soon relieved the patient of the terrible distress caused by the itching and burning. The doctors had been dressing the legs every day, but as soon as they saw the wonderful change in the skin where "Zemo" had been used, they gave consent to have it used on the legs. Gradually they began to improve and are now almost as smooth as the face. It was probably about a month before much relief was experienced in this part of the body, then skin sores ceased, itching, burning and aching gradually ceased. It seems now as if a testimonial might be given, but the patient thinks that she had better use "Zemo" a few weeks longer before saying that she is cured. However, she is very grateful to all who have been instrumental in securing your wonderful remedy and thinks that it has a great future before it.

Respectfully,
(MRS.) MARY PERRY BELLIS, Nurse in Hospital,
No. 208 N. 8th St.

The Ideal Family Laxative

is one that can be used by the entire family, young and old, weak and strong, without any danger of harmful effects. It should have properties which insure the same dose, always having the same effect, otherwise the quantity will have to be increased and finally lose its effect altogether. These properties can be found in that old family remedy, Brandreth's Pills, because its ingredients are of the purest herbal extracts, and every pill is kept for three years before being sold, which allows them to mellow. We do not believe there is a laxative on the market that is so carefully made.

Brandreth's Pills are the same fine laxative tonic pill your grandparents used. They have been in use for over a century and are sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar-coated.
